 Sarah went on holiday with her parents. They went to an island. But how did they get there?
 Sarah's family lives in a small house. It's blue. It has one room upstairs.

Sarah's family went from their house by car to the train station.

They caught a train to the airport where they caught a plane.

The plane flew to another country.

They got an orange bus from the airport to a place which had boats.

They sailed to the island.

The island was small but it had a small beach, grass, some mountains and a beautiful house in front of the mountains, with a table for picnics.

 - M: Why don't you listen to the radio?
 - Fch: They don't play good music.
 - M: Listen to your music then, on your player.
 - Fch: I need to get some new music for that. Can I watch a DVD in the living room?
 - M: OK. But quietly!

2.

- Mch: Have you got a computer in your bedroom?

Fch: No, I haven't. What about you?
 Mch: No. But there's one in the living room.
 Fch: But you're in your bedroom now, aren't you?
 Mch: Yes, I am.
 Fch: So are you talking to me on a laptop?
 Mch: No, I haven't got a laptop! I'm just on my mobile.

3.
 Fch: I've got a new mobile. Look!
 Mch: Cool. I love the colour. Did you get it from that phones website? What's it called?
 Fch: Phones Are Us? No, I went there but they didn't have a phone which I like.
 Mch: But their phones are newer than in the shop in town.
 Fch: Oh, I know. They are really old ones in there.
 Mch: So where did you get it from?
 Fch: My older sister has got a new job and she gets a phone from them. So she gave me her old one ... which isn't old at all!
 Mch: She gave it to you? That's great.

4.
 Fch: Do you like any of the new games for your video thing?
 Mch: They're all good. You're a farmer in one of them and you have to feed animals and look after them. But I got bored with it because there are only six animals – cows and sheep and things.
 Fch: What about the zoo one?
 Mch: That's better because there are so many wild animals. You have to run and catch them. It's great.
 Fch: Did you like the sea one with all the shells and the fish? That's my favourite.
 Mch: It's good but the zoo one is better.

 Mch: To that new café in town. It was good.
 Fch: Did you go on your bike? Or did you catch the bus?
 Mch: No. My brother came for me on his motorbike.
 Fch: Cool.

2.
 Fch: What did you eat at the café?
 Mch: Well, you know that I always have a sandwich for lunch.
 Fch: Not always. You sometimes have cold pasta.
 Mch: OK. So I often have a sandwich. But I had pasta this time.
 Fch: Cold?
 Mch: Hot.

3.
 Fch: But you didn't come back to school at two o'clock.
 Mch: No. I had to go home.
 Fch: Oh, dear. Were you ill? Julia got ill from salad last week and Mary got ill after eating some fruit.
 Mch: I didn't have salad or fruit! I had pasta.
 Fch: So what happened?
 Mch: I broke my glass of orange juice and cut my hand. Look. And I had to go home to get clean clothes.

4.
 Fch: So are you staying for the last lesson now?
 Mch: No, my parents are outside. I had to come back to school to get my bag.
 Fch: Are they taking you to the hospital?
 Mch: No, my hand isn't bad.
 Fch: Where are you going, then?
 Mch: Back to the café. I left my coat there.

Fch: Yes. It was great.
M: Did you go on the train?
Fch: We wanted to go on the train, but the teacher said the bus was better.
M: The school bus?
Fch: No, it was a big white bus. There were 54 of us.

2.
Mch: Do you like pandas, Jane?
Fch: Yes, they're lovely. I think they're my favourites. What about you, Sam?
Mch: I love black and white animals, too, but I like that black and white horse.
Fch: Horse?
Mch: Well, it's not a horse, but ...
Fch: Oh, zebra.
Mch: That's it.

3.
Fch: What are you eating?
Mch: It's pasta.
Fch: Is it nice?
Mch: It's OK. Do you want some, Jill?
Fch: No. I have pasta all the time for lunch.
Mch: So are you also eating pasta today?
Fch: No. Today I'm trying different food – a bowl of soup with some bread.

4.
Mch: Mum, which cupboard is everything in?
F: What do you mean, Nick, 'everything'?
Mch: All the things for the table. Plates, glasses ...
F: They're in that cupboard there. Are you putting them on the table for me?
Mch: No, I only want a glass for some water.

M: Oh. It's clever. Do you want to colour the pictures?
Fch: Yes, I do.
M: So what colour is his bed?
Fch: Um. My uncle's bed is ... blue. I'm colouring it blue.

M: OK. What colour is his hair?
Fch: He has got fair hair.
M: So colour it yellow in all the pictures.

M: Your uncle's at work in this picture.
Fch: Yes. He's working on his computer.
M: What colour is it?
Fch: It's green. I like the colour of his computer.
M: OK. Colour it green.

M: He's in a shop here.
Fch: Yes. He's getting oranges and apples.
M: OK. So what colour are oranges?
Fch: Orange. And these big apples are red.
M: Colour the oranges and the apples now.

M: Your uncle has got a dog?
Fch: Yes. It's called Rex. It's brown.
M: So colour the dog.
Fch: OK.

M: Is this your aunt?
Fch: Yes. My uncle and my aunt are having food and drink.
M: What colour is your aunt's hair?
Fch: It's red ... so I can colour it red.

M: Can you colour the sofa in this picture?
Fch: Where?
M: Here. Your uncle is sitting on the sofa and watching television.
Fch: Oh, yes. My aunt and uncle have got a purple sofa.
M: OK.

M: Your uncle is in bed here.
 Fch: Yes.
 M: In his blue bed.
 Fch: Oh, yes. I'm colouring it blue.
 M: OK.

 Fch: I've got some pictures of my town.
 They're from my computer.
 M: They're beautiful. They're in one street.
 Fch: Yes. It's called Brown Street.
 M: OK. So write 'Brown' next to 'Street'.
 Fch: OK. I'm writing it now.

M: Do you want to colour the buildings?
 Fch: Yes. This is my school.
 M: What colour is your school?
 Fch: It's red. I'm colouring it red.

M: OK. What colour is the cinema next to your school?
 Fch: It's blue.
 M: So colour the cinema blue.

M: What's the place opposite your school?
 Fch: That's the library. It's yellow.
 M: So colour it yellow and write 'library'
 under.
 Fch: OK. Yellow ... library.

M: What's next to the library?
 Fch: That's a bank. It's grey.
 M: So ...?
 Fch: So I colour it grey and I write 'bank'
 under.
 M: Yes, that's right.

M: I like the station. Is it a bus station?
 Fch: No, it's a train station.
 M: Is it old?
 Fch: Yes, it's very old. It's orange.
 M: An orange train station. Do you like it?
 Fch: Yes. It's beautiful.
 M: OK. Colour your orange train station – and write the word.

M: What's this here?
 Fch: That's the hospital.
 M: What colour is it?
 Fch: It's white so I can't colour it.
 M: OK. But you can write the name.
 Fch: No, I can't. I can't spell 'hospital'.
 M: Ah. It's H-O-S-P-I-T-A-L.
 Fch: Thank you.

 M: I love your animal drawings, Zoe.
 Fch: They're my favourite animals.
 M: What are they doing?
 Fch: Well, the brown and white cow's skating beautifully..
 M: Yes, she is. She's brown and white, is she?
 Fch: Yes. I'm colouring her now.

M: What colour is her scarf?
 Fch: It's red.
 M: Colour it red, then.

Fch: This is my cat. He's called Blue.
 M: Blue? Is he a blue cat?
 Fch: Yes. Shall I colour him blue?
 M: Yes, please. He's climbing well.
 Fch: Yes. He's good at climbing.

M: Is your parrot flying?
 Fch: No, he's dancing happily.
 M: OK. Now, parrots often have many different colours, don't they?
 Fch: Yes. My parrot is ... red and yellow and green.
 M: OK. Where are the colours?
 Fch: His body is red ..., his feet are yellow and his hands are green.
 M: His hands?
 Fch: I mean these things. His wings.
 M: OK. Red body, yellow feet and green wings.
 Fch: And his tail is green, too.
 M: OK.

M: What about the parrot's mouth?
 Fch: He's singing loudly.
 M: Yes, but what colour is his mouth?
 Fch: It's yellow, like his feet.
 M: OK.

M: The elephant's running quickly.
 Fch: Yes he is. But he's only a baby, so he's pink.
 M: A pink elephant. That's lovely.
 Fch: I can colour him pink now.
 M: OK.
